WNBA CARES

STORM IN THE COMMUNITY

Through WNBA Cares, the WNBA is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on education, youth and family development and health and wellness.

NBA/WNBA FIT

The league's comprehensive health and wellness program that encourages girls and women of all ages to learn more about their bodies and the importance of physical fitness through programs related to health, fitness, nutrition and self-esteem. Programming inspires girls and women to get started on "being fit" through small changes in their daily routine.

Dribble, Dish & Swish, a program of NBA/WNBA Fit, is free for boys and girls ages 7 to 12 and encourages participants to be active and to maintain healthy lifestyles. The competition gives participants the opportunity to showcase their fundamental basketball skills and physical fitness through a time-based, half-court obstacle course. The local champion in each age and gender group will receive an all-expense paid trip to NBA All-Star, where they will compete in the national finals.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

The WNBA Breast Health Awareness program focuses on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative.

VACCINES FOR TEENS

A national multimedia campaign designed to educate teens and their parents about the importance of vaccination against, potentially life-threatening diseases.

The Seattle Storm believes that success is not measured solely by wins on the basketball court. Giving back to the community is also a high priority, and the Storm has established a strong connection with its fans throughout the region. The team aims to serve as a powerful community advocate with a focus on literacy, health and fitness, support for women and girls and youth basketball. The Storm strives to strengthen the bond between players and fans by creating meaningful, personal experiences and to enrich their support of local organizations through effective community partnerships. Recognized as one of the WNBA's most active teams in the community, the Storm is committed to serving others through the organization that demonstrates its commitment to the community by investing in local youth. Storm players are strong role models and the organization actively leads community initiatives that encourage youth to lead a healthy and active lifestyle. Through the Storm, Bing too will connect with the Seattle community from the ground level and support positive initiatives to ensure our community can continue to have access to these activities.

In April of 2010, the Storm and Bing launched the first Jr. Storm Tour and will continue to host free basketball clinics for youth between Kindergarten and 6th grade at King County Boys and Girls Club location during the 2011 season.

WNBA GREEN

The WNBA is committed to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment. The WNBA Greening Initiative is an innovative program designed to reduce the environmental impact of the league's operations and events.

DRIBBLE TO STOP DIABETES

Campaign raising the awareness for diabetes and to promote the importance of healthy, active lifestyles, as well as diabetes awareness, prevention, and management.

FORCE 10 HOOPS LLC

The Seattle Storm's ownership group, Force 10 Hoops LLC, is comprised of three Seattle businesswomen and civic leaders, all season ticket holders, who stepped forward to purchase the Storm in January 2008 so that the team would remain in Seattle. Their actions were driven by their shared commitment to the importance of giving back to the community and to the philosophy that women and girls should have the chance to compete at every level.

The group's announcement of intent to purchase the Storm was made on Jan. 8, 3/008, and the purchase was approved by the WNBA Board of Governors on Feb. 3/8, making the Storm one of six independently owned franchises in the WNBA. Force 10 derives its name from the point on the Beaufort wind scale at which bad weather officially becomes a storm.

DAWN TRUDEAU

Chairperson

As the chairperson for Force 10 Hoops and the president of the Seattle Storm Foundation, Dawn Trudeau is committed to giving back to her local community in order to assure that women and girls have the opportunity to compete at any level, whether in the classroom, in business, education or athletics.

Trudeau has spent over 20 years in the software industry, including 14 years at Microsoft, where she led divisions in Database and Development tools as well as Consumer Products. For the past 13 years, she has helped emerging non-profits to develop the capacity to deliver their programs with maximum effectiveness.

Trudeau is a devoted member of numerous boards, including the following:

- Board of the Economic Opportunity Institute
- University of Washington Women's Center Advisory Board
- Board of Social Venture Partners International
- Microsoft Alumni Foundation Board
- Advisory Board of the Business Partnership for Early Learning.

Trudeau focuses her energy on early learning and socio-economic justice programs that help provide equal opportunity for all people to develop economic security and personal success.

LISA BRUMMEL

As the senior vice president for Human Resources at Microsoft and a member of Microsoft's senior management team, Lisa Brummel manages her time between the Storm, business and various charitable ventures. For 10 years prior to her current career, she served as corporate vice president of Microsoft's Home & Retail Division. As head of this billion-dollar division, she was responsible for overseeing worldwide development and business strategy for Microsoft's line of consumer hardware, software and Macintosh products.

During her athletic career at Yale University, Brummel was named to the Ivy League Women's Hall of Fame for Softball, received MVP honors on the All-Ivy teams for both basketball and softball, and held numerous university records. She was drafted to the Dallas Diamonds in the fourth round of the 1981 Women's Professional Basketball League (WBL) draft.

Brummel is an active philanthropist for organizations associated with Hopelink community services, the University of Washington Medical Center and Yale University.

GINNY GILDER

An experienced entrepreneur, Ginny Gilder has started several business and non-profit ventures. Gilder is currently the principal of her own investment business and president of one of her family's philanthropic entities, which invests in projects throughout the world that seek to level the economic playing field and promote social justice. She established Washington Works, a local non-profit dedicated to assisting welfare recipients obtain and retain livable-wage employment and served as the organization's first Executive Director. Gilder also serves on various non-profit boards, both locally and nationally, all focused on education or athletics.

Gilder earned four varsity letters as a rower at Yale University and was an All-Ivy Champion twice. During her freshman year, she helped usher in the post-Title IX era at Yale by participating in the now-famous Women's Crew Strip to protest the lack of equal facilities. Gilder represented the United States on four national rowing teams, including two Olympic teams. She was named to the U.S. team that boycotted the 1980 Moscow Olympic Games and in 1984 won a silver medal four years later at the Los Angeles Olympic Games. Gilder has since helped launch community rowing programs in Boston, Mass. and Derby, Conn. She received an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award for community service in 2004.

KAREN BRYANT

President and CEO

Karen Bryant has been involved with women's professional basketball for more than 15 years. Under Bryant's leadership over the past 12 seasons, the reigning WNBA Champion Seattle Storm has won two league titles (2004 and 2010), and has been recognized as one of the league's premier independently-owned franchise.

Named the Storm's Chief Executive Officer in 2008, Bryant is responsible for overseeing business and basketball operations for the organization, including long-term growth strategies and developing partnerships and initiatives focused on support for women and girls. Bryant has been instrumental in bringing professional women's basketball to a diverse and rapidly-growing fan base and making the Storm a unique community asset combining competition, sportsmanship and world-class entertainment value.

She started her career in sports in 1996 as the Director of Operations for the American Basketball League's Seattle Reign. She then served as General Manager of the Reign before being recruited in June 1999 by the Seattle Sonics to lead the organization's effort to secure a WNBA expansion franchise.

Widely acknowledged as a professional sports visionary and community leader, Bryant was recognized by the Seattle Sports Commission at the 2010 Sports

Executive of the Year and as one of the Puget Sound Business Journal's Women of Influence in 2005. Additionally, Bryant was recognized in March of 2010 by the Americans for UNFPA with its prestigious Health and Dignity Award for her continued efforts toward elevating the status of women and avocation for equality. She is involved with several nonprofit organizations and currently serves on the board of the Seattle Sports Commission and Boys & Girls Clubs of King County. Bryant was a standout athlete at Woodway High School in Edmonds before continuina her basketball career at Green River Community College, Seattle University and the University of Washington. She graduated from U.W. with a degree in Communications. The Girl Scouts of America recently named Bryant and Storm owners Ginny Gilder, Dawn Trudeau and Lisa Brummel as 2011 Women of Distinction.

STORM BASKETBALL

STORM BASKRTBALL BRIAN AGLER

Head Coach and General Manager

The 2012 WNBA season marks Brian Agler's fifth campaign as the Seattle Storm head coach, and his eighth year as a head coach in the WNBA. Agler reached a milestone coaching mark with a home 2011 regular season. It gave him 211 professional career victories, moving him into a tie with Van Chancellor on the all-time professional women's basketball list:

1. Van Chancellor, 211 (10 years, all WNBA)

2. Brian Agler, 211 (72 ABL, 138 WNBA) Agler was introduced as the Storm's head coach on Jan. 8, 2008 and is the third coach in Storm history. He also assumed the role of Director of Player Personnel.

In 2010 the Storm captured the league's championship title, its second, with an impressive regular season record of 28-6 and an undefeated playoff record of 7-0. Additionally, Coach Agler was recognized as the WNBA's Coach of the Year. Prior to joining the Storm is 2008, Agler was the head coach and general manager of the expansion team Minnesota Lynx from 1999-2002, where he compiled a 42-54 (.438) record.

Before being named the first coach of the expansion Lynx, Agler served as the head coach of the Columbus Quest of the ABL from 1996-1999, compiling an 82-22 record. He led the Quest to back-to-back victory over Chicago, Sept. 11, the final game of the ABL championships in 1997 and 1998 and was named the ABL Coach of the Year for the 1996-97 season. Agler completed his third season as an assistant coach for the San Antonio Silver Stars in 2007. Prior to joining San Antonio, he served as assistant coach with the Phoenix Mercury and helped guide the team to a 17-17 record after the Mercury finished with an 8-26 record in 2003.

> Agler spent 15 seasons coaching among the college ranks, including 13 seasons as a head coach. He posted an impressive collegiate record of 248-135 (.648 winning percentage). From 1993-96 he served as the head women's basketball coach at Kansas State. In 1988, Agler took over as the head women's coach at the University of Missouri-Kansas City. In five seasons at UMKC, Agler was 85-54 and took the Kangaroos from a 9-16 record in 1988-89 to four straight winning seasons with 17 or more victories.

Under his direction, UMKC led the NCAA in scoring defense three consecutive seasons from 1990-93. In 1991, UMKC set an NCAA team record, allowing 51.8 points per game. As the head women's basketball coach at Northeast Oklahoma A&M Junior College from 1984-88, Agler compiled a 124-42 record (.747 winning percentage). In 1985-86, NEO A&M was ranked second nationally and posted a 30-2 record.

Agler attended Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio, where he starred on the basketball team for four seasons. He led the Tigers to their only NCAA Division III Championship in basketball as a freshman. He started all 112 games during his college career, leaving the school as the all-time assist leader (481). Agler helped lead his team to a 91-21 record during his four years with the Tigers, and was named most valuable player in the Ohio Athletic Conference and first-team All-America as a senior. In 1995, he was inducted into the Wittenberg Hall of Honor.

In 1980, Agler graduated with a degree in special education and physical education. He received his master's degree in education from Pittsburg State University (Pittsburg, Kansas) in 1985. Agler and his wife Robin, have one son, Bryce, and one daughter, Taylor.

NANCY DARSCH

Assistant Coach

Nancy Darsch, in her fifth season as an assistant coach for the Seattle Storm, has coached women's basketball at both the professional and Division I college levels.

As head coach for the WNBA's New York Liberty during the inaugural season in 1997, she led them to the championship game and a 17-11 record. She compiled a 36-24 record with New York over two seasons. Darsch took over the reigns for the Washington Mystics in 1999. After two seasons as head coach of the Mystics, Darsch became an advance scout for the team for three seasons.

She later joined the Minnesota Lynx as an assistant coach from 2003-2005. In 2006 and 2007 Darsch was an assistant coach at Boston College, helping lead the Eagles to a 13-16 campaign in 2006-07, and a 20-11 record in 2007-08, including a berth in the post-season WNIT.

Prior to her WNBA experience, Darsch was the head coach at Ohio State University for 12 seasons. She compiled a record of 234-125 (.652) while at Ohio State. Darsch led the Buckeyes to four Big Ten Conference Championships and seven NCAA tournament appearances. In 1993, Darsch led Ohio State to an impressive 24-4 record, a Big Ten Championship and the NCAA championship game. Before her arrival at Ohio State, Darsch was an assistant coach at Tennessee for seven seasons under head coach Pat Summitt.

Darsch has also been involved with USA Basketball since 1984. She has won two Olympic gold medals as an assistant coach for the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles and the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta.

A native of Plymouth, Mass., Darsch is a 1973 graduate of Springfield College. She earned her master's degree in physical education from the University of Tennessee.

JENNY BOUCEK

Assistant Coach

Boucek, in her second season an assistant coach for the Storm under the leadership of Brian Agler, re-joined the defending WNBA champions in 2010 as the Director of Player Development and Scouting. Boucek served as an assistant coach for the Storm under Anne Donovan during the 2003, 2004 and 2005 seasons and was an integral part of the 2004 WNBA championship team. Additionally, Boucek served as the head coach for the now-defunct Sacramento Monarchs and compiled a record of 40-41 during her two-plus seasons (2007-2009) with the organization.

After beginning her WNBA coaching career began in 1999 as an assistant with the Washington Mystics, Boucek spent three seasons as an assistant with the Miami Sol. She played professional basketball for two years before joining the coach ranks. In 1997, the WNBA's inaugural season, Boucek was a member of the Cleveland Rockers.

Boucek also played in Iceland in 1998 and was voted the country's best player after averaging 23 points, seven rebounds and six assists. She returned to Cleveland for the 1998 season but was forced to retire due to a career-ending back injury.

A four-year starter at the University of Virginia (1992-96), Boucek helped lead the Cavaliers to four regular-season ACC Championships and three NCAA Elite Eight appearances. She was a two-time GTE Academic All-America team member and two-time ACC selection. Boucek twice earned team Defensive Player of the Year honors and finished her career at Virginia as a member of the 1,000-point club. She also competed in the U.S. Olympic Festival in 1993.

MISSY BEQUETTE

Director of Basketball Operations

A member of the 2000 inaugural Storm staff, Missy Bequette celebrates her 13th season with the club and has been the director of basketball operations since the 2001 season. She is responsible for all travel arrangements, housing and practice scheduling, in addition to assisting with the draft, scouting and player personnel.

A native of Crystal City, Mo., Bequette graduated from the University of Missouri-Columbia before earning a master's degree in education with an emphasis in sport management from the University of Arkansas. While at Arkansas, Bequette served as the Lady Razorbacks assistant coach during the 1985-86 season.

After a year at the Arkansas School of Law, Bequette returned to the University of Missouri as an assistant coach from 1988 through 1997. Bequette's responsibilities at Missouri included evaluation and recruitment, a task at which she achieved great success by bringing in two Big 8 Freshmen of the Year and several all-conference athletes.

Bequette began her career in professional basketball with the Portland Power (ABL) in 1997, assisting former Storm Head Coach Lin Dunn. The Power won the ABL Western Conference with eventual WNBA players Natalie Williams, DeLisha Milton, Elaine Powell and Sylvia Crawley.

Prior to joining the Storm in March 2000, Bequette was a teacher and basketball coach at Southridge High School in Beaverton, Ore.

KAYCE KIRIHARA

Equipment Manager and Video Coordinator

Kayce Kirihara is in her second season as the equipment manager and video coordinator for the Seattle Storm. After several seasons as a Ball Kid, she was elevated to the position midway thru the 2011 season.

Her duties include managing the Storm players' gear, managing and scheduling the team's ball kids, editing Storm game tapes, helping with the scouting of Storm opponents and assisting the coaching staff with additional video production.

A native of Seattle, Kirihara attended Franklin High School where she played basketball and volleyball. She earned a basketball scholarship to the University of Hawaii-Hilo and graduated from there with a degree in communications.

TOM SPENCER

A.T., C. PTA

Tom Spencer, in his fifth season as the head athletic trainer for the Seattle Storm, graduated from Central Washington University in 1990 with a degree in individualized studies: Sports Medicine and Adaptive Physical Education.

Spencer worked for the Milwaukee Brewers for one summer as the Head Athletic Trainer for the Peoria Brewers of the Arizona summer league in 1988. From 1989-1999, Spencer worked for the Cincinnati Reds as a Head Minor League Athletic Trainer at many different levels from Rookie ball to Double A. Most recently, Spencer went back to school to become a Physical Therapist Assistant in 2002 and since then he has been working for Peak Sports and Spine Physical Therapy. Spencer opened and office in the Lake city area in August of 2006.

Spencer was born and raised in the Seattle area. He, his wife Margaret and his two daughters Marisa (17) and Mariel (15), live in the greater Seattle area. In Tom's spare time he likes to watch and coach his daughters' sports.

MICHAEL BRANDENBURG

Strength and Conditioning Coach

Michael F. Brandenburg is in his second year as the strength and conditioning coach for the Seattle Storm. He is a Former United States Marine and earned his B. S. in Exercise Science and Personal Training Certification through the Dr. Cooper Institute of Aerobic Research. Brandenburg has 22 years experience and knowledge to motivate, encourage, and help clients see how sharp their iron is.

Brandenburg has trained thousands of people from ages 7 to senior citizens, including athletes at the pro, semi-pro, college, high school, select, junior high, club and grade school levels. These athletes have been involved in football, soccer, baseball, fastpitch, gymnastics, basketball, lacrosse, swimming, track & field, wrestling, down hill skiing, and ballet.

2011 STORM SEASON NOTES

• The Storm reached the 20-win mark for the fourth consecutive season and became just the second team in the WNBA history to be so consistently successful for so long. The 21 wins rank third in franchise history (28 in 2010, 22 in 2008).

• The Storm's eighth playoff appearance in a row ties the Sparks for the longest streak in WNBA history.

• The Storm finished the season 15-2 at KeyArena, tying Connecticut for the league's best home record. Under Agler, the Storm improved to 61-7 (.897) at home.

Katie Smith reached 6,000 points in the season's final game, becoming just the third WNBA player to the mark. Counting the 1,433 she scored in the ABL, Smith is the all-time leading scorer in women's professional basketball history with 7,448 points.

• Sue Bird and Swin Cash both joined the 4,000-point club.

• Bird and Cash represented the Storm as starters for the Western Conference All-Star team. Cash was named All-Star MVP.

• The last win of the regular season saw Brian Agler tie Van Chancellor for the most wins by a coach in women's professional basketball history with 211 (72 ABL, 138 WNBA).

2001 STORM SEASON NOTES

The Storm finished eighth in the Western Conference, 18 games behind Los Angeles.

The team's 10-22 record was a four-game improvement over the inaugural season.

Rookie forward Lauren Jackson, the first overall pick in the 2001 WNBA Draft, became the first Storm player to be named a WNBA All-Star and played in the 2001 WNBA All-Star Game.

Jackson led all WNBA rookies in scoring, rebounding, steals and blocked shots and was the WNBA Rookie of the Year runner-up.

Rookie guard Semeka Randall scored a then-franchise-record 28 points vs. Orlando on June 12, 2001.

The Storm finished second in the Western Conference with a 20-14 record, setting the then franchise mark for regular-season wins.

Seattle won its first WNBA Championship, the city's first professional sports title in 25 years.

Betty Lennox, who was selected by the Storm in the 2004 WNBA Dispersal Draft, was named the WNBA Finals MVP after leading all players in the championship series by scoring an average of 22.3 points per game.

Lauren Jackson averaged 20.5 points per game to lead the WNBA in scoring for the second consecutive year.

Sue Bird and Jackson were named to the All-WNBA First Team. It was Bird's third year in a row and Jackson's second straight year receiving the honor.

Head Coach Anne Donovan became the first female coach to win the WNBA Championship. During the season, she also served as an assistant coach on the 2004 gold-medal winning U.S. Women's Senior National Team at the Olympic Summer Games in Athens, Greece. Bird was also a member of the Olympic-champion U.S. squad.

Jackson won the silver medal, leading the Australian National Team to the Olympic final against the U.S.

2005 STORM SEASON NOTES

The Storm finished second in the Western Conference with a 20-14 record, matching the then franchise mark for regular-season wins.

Seattle made its third postseason appearance, falling 2-1 to Houston in the First Round.

The Storm set a club record by posting a 14-3 mark at KeyArena. The Storm finished the season with a nine-game home winning streak, the longest in team history.

Sue Bird and Lauren Jackson were both named to the All-WNBA First Team. Bird received the honor for the fourth consecutive year and Jackson for her third straight year.

Both Bird and Jackson were named as starters for the Western Conference in the 2005 WNBA All-Star Game.

Anne Donovan became the first female coach in WNBA history to win 100 games when the Storm beat the Minnesota Lynx at KeyArena on Aug. 18. Donovan became the fourth coach overall to reach the 100-win plateau.

Sue Bird won the WNBA's assist title after finishing second the previous three seasons.

The Storm broke the 150,000 barrier in attendance as 150,760 fans attended games at KeyArena. Seattle's 11 percent increase over 2004 attendance was the largest in the league. On Aug. 27, Donovan signed a contract extension to remain head coach of the Storm.

2006 STORM SEASON NOTES

The Storm finished fourth in the Western Conference with a record of 18-16 and earned a playoff berth for the third consecutive season. Seattle's nine road victories were a franchise record.

Seattle fell to Los Angeles 2-1 in the First Round of the WNBA Playoffs.

Sue Bird and Lauren Jackson were both named to the WNBA's All-Decade Team.

Both Bird and Jackson were also named as starters for the Western Conference at the WNBA All-Star Game.

Jackson tallied her 3,000th career point on June 7 at Chicago, becoming the youngest (25 years, 33 days) and fastest (162 career games) player in WNBA historyto reach the milestone.

The victory over Charlotte on Aug. 5 was the 120th of Anne Donovan's career, moving her past Michael Cooper and into third place on the league's all-timewins list.

2007 STORM SEASON NOTES

The Storm finished fourth in the Western Conference with a record of 17-17 and earned a playoff berth for the fourth consecutive season. Seattle finished the regular season with a three-game winning streak.

Seattle fell to Phoenix 2-0 in the First Round of the WNBA Playoffs.

Sue Bird and Lauren Jackson were both named as starters for the Western Conference at the WNBA All-Star Game.

Jackson was named the winner of the 2007 WNBA MVP Award for the second time in her career.

Jackson was also named 2007 WNBA Defensive Player of the Year, while being named to the 2007 WNBA All-Defensive First Team.

Jackson was also named a 2007 WNBA Peak Performer, while leading the league in scoring and rebounding, averaging 23.8 points per game and 9.7 rebounds per game.

Jackson was named to the 2007 All-WNBA First Team for the fifth consecutive season.

Jackson scored a league record tying 47 points at Washington on July 24.

Anne Donovan, who led the Storm to the playoffs four times and won a WNBA title in 2004, resigned.

2008 STORM SEASON NOTES

The Storm completed its 2008 regular-season home schedule 16-1, tying the most home wins for a WNBA team.

The Storm tied the franchise record for longest home winning streak with a pair of 10-game streaks, including the final 10 games at KeyArena from June 20-Sept. 12.

The Storm's 22-win season set a new franchise record.

Seattle's 3-0 start to the 2008 season was the first time in franchise history the team remained undefeated after its first three games.

The Storm dropped to 1-5 all-time in First Round playoff series and was eliminated in the semifinals for the fourth consecutive season. Seattle fell to Los Angeles 1-2 in the First Round of the WNBA Playoffs.

Sue Bird returned from the 2008 Beijing Summer Olympics with a Gold Medal, while Storm teammate Lauren Jackson finished with a Silver Medal.

Lauren Jackson was named to the 2008 WNBA All-Defensive Second Team.

Sue Bird and Lauren Jackson were both named to the 2008 All-WNBA Second Team.

The Storm's seven-game winning streak, from June 29 through July 18, was the longest in team history. Six of the seven wins came by double-figures.

2010 STORM SEASON NOTES

- The Storm became the first team since the WNBA Finals expanded to a best-of-five series to sweep its way through the postseason and the only team in league history to finish the regular season and playoffs unbeaten at home.
- The Storm completed the 2010 WNBA regular season with a record of 28-6 (the WNBA's best in 2010 and a Storm franchise best). It was the team's fifth 20-win season, third 20-win season in a row and the third with Coach Brian Agler.
- The Storm has become only the fourth professional team to go through the playoffs undefeated while playing at least seven games.
- The Storm completed the 2010 regular season and postseason on a 10-game winning streak.
- The Storm went undefeated at home, joining the 2001 Los Angeles Sparks as the only teams in WNBA history to do so and becoming the first team in league history to win 17 home games during the regular season.
- The Storm won 28 games, tying the record for the most wins in WNBA history (with the 2000 and 2001 LA. Sparks, both 28-4).
- The Storm won 13 games in a row from June 18-July 30, 2010, the longest streak in team history and the third longest the WNBA has ever seen (Los Angeles, 18, June 26-Aug. 11, 2001; Houston, 15, June 27-July 30, 1998).
- The Storm started the season (20-2), equaling the WNBA record for the best start after 22 games (the 1998 Houston Comets started 25-2 and finished 27-3).
- The Storm (28-6, .824) surpassed the 2005 Seahawks (13-3, .813) for the best single-season win percentage in Seattle pro sports history.
- The Storm beat Tulsa by 46 points, 111-65, on Aug. 7 to break the WNBA record for the largest margin of victory (previously 45 by Houston at Washington, 110-65, Aug. 17, 1998) and tie the team record for most points scored in a game.
- Three Storm players (Sue Bird, Lauren Jackson & Swin Cash) were voted to the All Star team (more players than from any other team).
- Seattle became the first all-female ownership group to win a professional sports title.

STORM CONNECTION

- Courtney Vandersloot (Kentwood) is a Seattle-area native.

- Sky Head Coach Pokey Chatman coached both Sue Bird and Lauren Jackson in Russia with Sparta & K Moscow Region.
- Sylvia Fowles and Epiphanny Prince were both part of that team as well.
- Swin Cash (2008-2011) and Le'coe Willingham (2010-2011) were both members of the Seattle Storm.

MATCHUP FACTS

Since the Storm won the first six meetings between the two teams, Chicago has gone 3-1 the last two seasons.

MEDIA INFORMATION

GENERAL MEDIA INFORMATION

GENERAL MEDIA INFORMATION

The following media guidelines have been established to assist you in your coverage of the Storm and to provide a professional, comfortable working environment for all members of the media.

PR HOTLINE 206-281-5847

If you have any questions or interview requests, please contact the Storm PR Hotline.

KEYARENA is located on the grounds of the Sattle Center. From I-5 (north or southbound) take the Mercer Street exit and follow the signs marked "Seattle Center." The arena is approximately 25 minutes north of the airport.

MEDIA ENTRANCE is located through Parking Lot 4 on the south side of KeyArena (corner of Warren Street and Thomas Street).

CREDENTIALS may be requested by calling the public relations department 24 hours prior to the game. Credentials are issued to accredited members of the media who are on assignment to cover a specific game. Please confirm your credential request prior to arriving at the game. Credentials should be used for work at all times and are non-transferable. Unauthorized use of a credential may subject the bearer to ejection from the arena and forfeiture of the credential.

PARKING is available on a limited basis and may be arranged by phoning the public relations department.

TELEPHONES are provided in the media workroom and on a limited basis at courtside. If you need a dedicated phone line, call the public relations department to make arrangements.

SEATING is located at courtside, on the second level of the west side of the arena and in all media sections. Please do not switch seating without approval from a member of the public relations department. Seating charts can be found at the media entrance and in the media workroom.

PHOTOGRAPHERS Please be considerate of season-ticket holders seated directly behind you. For the safety of players and in accordance with league rules, photographers must remain at least four feet behind the baseline at all times. Remote cameras and tripods are not permitted. Use of a flash is prohibited. Rubber lens shades are required on all lenses for still photographers, broadcasters, news and entertainment video and film crews. THE MEDIA ROOM is located on the lower west concourse directly above the visitors' locker room. The room opens two hours prior to each game and is equipped with telephones, outlets, a fax machine, Storm game notes, league statistics and scores from other WNBA games.

LOCKER ROOMS are located on the west side at court level. In accordance with WNBA policy, locker rooms will be open for a 30 minute period ending one hour before the start of a game. Locker rooms are reopened to the media after the game no later than 10 minutes following the game's conclusion and remain open for a minimum of 30 minutes. Following the 30 minute media access period, locker rooms will be closed for a 20-30 minute period to allow players to shower and dress, and the locker rooms then may again be opened to the media.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS that require special accommodations should be made ahead of time by calling the PR Hotline at 206-281-5847.

GAME NOTES AND STATISTICS are available in the media room two hours before each game, during the game and postgame. Statistics are distributed to the media seating area after each quarter.

PRACTICE TIMES AND POLICIES may be obtained by contacting the public relations department. The Storm practice at Royal Brougham Pavilion at Seattle Pacific University located at 3414 Third Ave. W., Seattle. Media should enter through Third Ave. W. entrance designated marked the Seattle Storm logo.

STATISTICIANS for radio and television broadcasts may be arranged by contacting the public relations department.

PLAYOFF INFORMATION may differ from the regular season due to increased media coverage. Should the Storm qualify for the postseason, information regarding the playoffs may be obtained by contacting the public relations department.

DICK FAIN

Radio Play-By-Play Announcer

Dick Fain is entering his fifth year as the "Voice of the Storm". Dick worked alongside David Locke and Elise Woodward and was the sideline reporter as well as fill-in play-by-play and color analyst from 2002-2006 and was part of the broadcast team during the WNBA championship run in 2004 and 2010. Dick has spent 14 years at Sports Radio 950 KJR, where he has served as show host and Sports Director. He also serves as a play-by-play voice for the Seattle University men's basketball team. Dick graduated from the University of Washington in 1996 with a degree in broadcast journalism after attending Mount Rainier High School in Des Moines where he continues to serve as a Varsity Boys' Basketball coach. Dick is a lifelong resident of the Seattle area. He and his wife Janna live in the Seattle suburb of Normandy Park.

ADIA BARNES

Radio Color Analyst

Former Storm player Adia Barnes is in her sixth season as the color analyst. She will team with Dick Fain this season on the Storm's radio partner, 1150 AM KKNW. The seven-year WNBA veteran spent the 2002-2004 seasons in Seattle. Drafted in 1998 by the Sacramento Monarchs, Barnes played with four different teams and finished her career averaging 3.8 points and 2.6 rebounds per game. In addition to her work for the Storm. Barnes has also appeared as a broadcaster on NBA TV. Most recently, she was hired as an assistant coach for the University of Washington women's basketball team.

Tulsa Shock History: On April 24, 1996, women's basketball announced "We Got Next" as the NBA Board of Governors approved the concept of a Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) to begin play in June 1997.

Since that day in 1996, there have been many firsts for the WNBA:

Val Ackerman -- the first president of the WNBA Sheryl Swoopes -- the first player signed to the WNBA Cynthia Cooper -- the league's first Most Valuable Player Houston Comets -- the first WNBA champions Lisa Leslie -- the first WNBA player to dunk (July 30 2002 vs. Miami) Lauren Jackson -- the first international player to win MVP (2007) Candace Parker -- the first rookie to earn the league's MVP honor (2008)

Sylvia Fowles -- the first goaltending call (June 3, 2008 vs. L.A.)

The inaugural WNBA season tipped off on June 21, 1997, with the New York Liberty taking on the Los Angeles Sparks at the Great Western Forum in Inglewood, Calif. A crowd of 14,284 watched as Sparks guard Penny Toler scored the first basket in WNBA history. The Liberty defeated the Sparks, 67-57.

Fifteen years later, in a rematch of those same two teams at Staples Center in Los Angeles, the increased skill, talent, and athleticism of WNBA players was evident as the Sparks, led by center/ forward Candace Parker, defeated the Liberty 96-91. In 2011, the league also selected its "Top 15 Players of All Time." Voting was conducted among fans, media, and current players and coaches. Those named to the list were Sue Bird, Tamika Catchings, Cynthia Cooper, Yolanda Griffith, Becky Hammon, Lauren Jackson, Lisa Leslie, Ticha Penicheiro, Cappie Pondexter, Katie Smith, Dawn Staley, Sheryl Swoopes, Diana Taurasi, Tina Thompson, and Teresa Weatherspoon,

A Growing Game:

The influence of the WNBA can be seen in the explosive growth of organized women's basketball over the past 14 seasons. An estimated 100 million women play basketball worldwide, and the league reflects this trend, featuring 15 international players from six countries and territories at the start of the 2011 season. Female AAU youth basketball participation has increased 277 percent since 1991 (from 28,840 to 108,758 players). Female high school basketball participation has increased 17 percent since 1991 (from 387,802 to 456,967 players). And female NCAA basketball participation has increased 43 percent since 1991 (from 10,551 to 15,096 players).

All-Star Game:

The San Antonio Silver Stars and the AT&T Center hosted the 2011 WNBA All-Star Game presented by adidas in San Antonio on Saturday, July 23, 2011.

The first WNBA All-Star Game was held in New York at Madison Square Garden in 1999. The Garden also hosted the event in 2003 and in 2006. Washington's Verizon Center (2002, 2007) is the other venue to host the game multiple times. Other All-Star Games were played in Phoenix (2000), Orlando (2001), and at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. (2009). Due to the Olympics, no All-Star Game was held in 2004 and 2008, although Radio City Music Hall in New York City was the site of an exhibition game on August 5, 2004, as the U.S. National Team. comprised mainly of WNBA greats, faced a squad of WNBA All-Stars in "WNBA vs. USA Basketball: The Game at Radio City." In 2010, the WNBA held a special event called "WNBA vs. USA Basketball: The Stars at the Sun" at Mohegan Sun Arena in order to accommodate the FIBA World Championship schedule.

Inspiring Women:

The Inspiring Woman Award is an annual honor that celebrates an individual who, on a daily basis, demonstrates her ability to inspire others through her commitment, passion and dedication to work, family, and community. Past honorees include Emmy-award winning news anchor Katie Couric (2011), U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations Susan Rice (2010), Emmy-award winning journalist Cokie Roberts (2009), Good Morning America's Robin Roberts (2008), Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice (2007), and the WNBA All-Decade Team (2006).

Dawn Staley Award:

The Dawn Staley Community Leadership Award was announced in 2006 and is now presented annually to the player who best exemplifies the characteristics of a leader in the community and reflects Staley's contagious leadership, spirit, charitable efforts, and love for the game.

Winners include Charde Houston (2010), Chamique Holdsclaw (2009), Tamika Raymond (2008), and Tamika Catchings (2007). A member of the WNBA's All-Decade Team, Staley, who retired following the 2006 season, established herself as one of the greatest ambassadors in women's basketball history, while also demonstrating outstanding leadership qualities as a coach on the collegiate level and as a philanthropist and humanitarian. Marketing: The WNBA maintains marketing, promotional, and media partnerships with a variety of top companies, each with varying levels of activation and integration in league operations.

Marketing and Promotional Partners: adidas, American Express, Bacardi, BBVA, Boost Mobile, CieAura, Coca-Cola, Deuce Brand, EA Sports, Gatorade, General Mills/Wheaties, Growums, Hayworth, HP, InterContinental Hotels Group (IHG) Hotels, Jamba Juice, NewTek, Nike, Panasonic, Pepperidge Farm, Pirate's Booty, Russell Athletic, Sanofi Aventis, Sanofi Pasteur, Spalding

Media Partners: USA Today, Parenting Group, Essence, Heart & Soul

The WNBA's marketing partners utilize the league to support women's sports and reach its strong fanbase of women, families, and young girls through advertising in WNBA nationally televised games, national promotions, player endorsements, and special events.

On Aug. 22, 2011 the WNBA and Boost Mobile, an industry leader in no-contract wireless service, announced a landmark multiyear marketing partnership that makes Boost Mobile the first leaguewide marquee partner of the WNBA. As the league's most prominent partner, Boost Mobile is tied closely to the WNBA brand on a national level. As part of this partnership, the Boost Mobile brand is prominently featured on the front of the game jerseys of 10 teams. Additionally, special programming highlighting the "WNBA's Top 15 Moments presented by Boost Mobile" is included as part of the league's 15th season celebration.

The WNBA has an extensive, highly integrated relationship with adidas. The sporting goods and apparel giant has served as the official outfitter of the WNBA, having unveiled new uniforms across the league in 2007 and again in 2011. In 2008, adidas became the first-ever presenting partner of the WNBA's entire postseason, including both the playoffs and Finals, and was the presenting partner for the 2011 WNBA All-Star Game.

Five WNBA teams have entered the league's Marquee Partnership program, which includes multiyear deals featuring branded sponsorship of game jerseys – the Phoenix Mercury partnering with LifeLock, the Los Angeles Sparks with Farmers Insurance Group, the Seattle Storm with Microsoft search engine Bing, the New York Liberty with Foxwoods Resort Casino, and the Washington Mystics with Inova Health System.

Attendance /TV Ratings: In 2011, WNBA attendance increased for the fifth consecutive year and regular-season TV viewership on ESPN2 reached its highest level since 2005, as fans responded to one of the most compelling seasons in the league's 15-year history. Viewership for the league's showcase events also increased. Viewership for the WNBA All-Star Game on ABC was up 46 percent vs. the last All-Star on ABC in 2009 (there was no All-Star Game in 2010). Viewership for the 2011 WNBA Finals was up four percent over the 2010 championship series. U.S. ratings for the first round of the 2011 WNBA Draft on ESPN increased 47 percent vs. the first round of 2010 Draft on ESPN2.

The WNBA's broadcast coverage in 2011 included more than two dozen high-definition regular-season playoffs and Finals games on ESPN2 and ABC, as well as 70 regular-season games and up to six playoff games on NBA TV. In addition, all WNBA games were available online via WNBA LiveAccess unless: (a) They were televised on ABC or ESPN2 – in which case they streamed live on ESPN3.com and were later archived to WNBA.com, or (b) Their game window fell within a national broadcast window on ABC or ESPN2.

In July 2007, the WNBA signed a new, eight-year TV deal with ESPN that tipped off in 2009 and runs through 2016, the WNBA's 20th season. The agreement, which calls for ABC, ESPN, and ESPN2 to telecast WNBA games, includes rights fees, a first for any women's professional team sports league in the U.S.

Digital/Social Media: WNBA Digital assets continued to increase in popularity as WNBA.com saw continued growth during the 2011 season, with daily unique visits up 13 percent and overall visits up 11 percent. WNBA games streamed online at WNBA.com via LiveAccess saw a 55 percent increase in unique users. In terms of social media, the WNBA YouTube channel experienced a 35 percent increase in video views this season. The WNBA Facebook page (www.Facebook.com/wnba) saw an 11 percent increase in fans.

Global Reach: The WNBA has a wide impact on overseas markets. In 2011, WNBA games and programming reached a record 203 countries in 25 languages. In addition, for the sixth consecutive year, fans around the globe are able to view WNBA action via live Webcasts on WNBA.com. End-of-season 2011 WNBA rosters featured 15 international players from seven countries and territories. Among the league's international contingent are the three-time MVP, Seattle Storm forward/center Lauren Jackson (Australia), the Indiana Fever's Tammy Sutton-Brown (Canada), the San Antonio Silver Stars' Sophia Young (St. Vincent), the Los Angeles Sparks' Ticha Penicheiro (Portugal), and Tulsa's Liz Cambage (Australia), whom the Shockselected with the No. 2 overall pick in the 2011 Draft.

WNBA Draft: The 2012 WNBA Draft presented by Boost Mobile took place on April 16 at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, Conn. It was the second straight year in which the league's draft was held on the ESPN campus. The Los Angeles Sparks selected Stanford University forward Nnemkadi Ogwumike as the No. 1 overall pick. The Seattle Storm selected Shekinna Stricklen second, the Minnesota Lynx tabbed Devereaux Peters third, the Tulsa Shock chose Glory Johnson fourth, and the San Antonio Silver Stars took Jantel Lavender fifth to round out the first five selections. In 2011, Maya Moore, selected No. 1 overall by the Lynx, went on to become the fifth top pick in the past six seasons to win Rookie of the Year honors.

Ownership: Six WNBA teams now fall under the independent ownership model: the Atlanta Dream, Chicago Sky, Connecticut Sun, Los Angeles Sparks, Seattle Storm, and Tulsa Shock.

The Tulsa Shock (formerly Detroit), which began play in Tulsa in 2010, is owned by Tulsa Pro Hoops L.L.C. The Connecticut Sun, which began operation in 2003 after relocating from Orlando, is owned by the Mohegan Tribe. The Chicago Sky is owned by Michael Alter.

Entering the 2012 season, 10 women also serve as majority or minority owners of WNBA teams: Dr. Sheila Johnson (Washington Mystics); Paula Madison, Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson (Los Angeles Sparks); Mary Brock and Kelly Loeffler (Atlanta); and Dawn Trudeau, Ginny Gilder, and Lisa Brummel of Force 10 Hoops L.L.C. (Seattle Storm). A 10th, musical artist Michelle Williams, formerly of "Destiny's Child," is a minority owner of the Chicago Sky.
